

papers that they examined it with attention.

I forgot to ask, what we owe in your debt about the photographic articles? Or was the bill enclosed to Mr. Benson? please let me know - if it is yourself I am quite ashamed to have neglected it so long - Shall I send a money order? or stamps? -

I find my little negative achromatic - lens Barlow lens - which I explained (or rather did not explain) so miserably to you in the Shoe Shop - acts very nicely - but I have not yet measured the increase of power in using it.

I beg to be remembered kindly to Mr. & Mrs. Knapp - Mrs. Webb sends her kind regards, & many thanks, & hopes she may meet you again some day, & I remain, My dear Sir, Yours very sincerely
J. W. Webb.
