

P.S. I had finished my note, & was sending Mrs Webb's papers, when she suddenly reminded me that I had forgotten to beg you to be so kind as to do another little commission for her. Will you do her the favour to go (on Sunday) to Oxford St. very near the corner of Tottenham Court Road - & on the same side where, at No. 9. is a China shop kept by C.F. Turner on May 4. she purchased there a Depart Dish of White French China, for 4s. 6d. of which I send you a sketch (open work, as you will perceive) She wants another of the same also another of what is called a "Centre" in the bill - which is a similar openwork dish fixed upon a stand with a central screw - which cost 6s. - She must pack them in wrapping it by Rail, and send them directed to

B. Haigh Allen, Esq:
Union Club

Trafalgar Square. W.C.

it (Mrs Webb) in the corner. - But in case it is not to perfectly convenient to you to see about this time for Mr. Allen to have it by Wednesday night.