

Hardwick Parsonage,

Oct. 20/64.

My dear Sir,

I am very sorry for all the trouble I have been the means of causing to your good father; but I have sent him the regular Circular, which explains though it does not justify the mistake. - I am very thankful to hear of your new position and earnestly trust that you not only have been, but ever will be, Divinely directed - "Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established."

I am short of time today (when and long of it!) but must add my admiration of your Cement plan - to which I can see no
