

About the books; it is so kind of you to have done as you have about them, & taken so much trouble. You can,
as you say, forward the others by post, on if the collective postage would amount to more than 1^l. 6^s. they would probably come for that per Midland Rail. But as to the Nachrichten, I really don't think they would be worth, to me, the carriage money - it would have been another sixten if you had bought them - or could yet bring them - but as it is - if it must after all be a disappointment, I don't much care to have them, and am only ashamed that you should have had so much trouble about them already.

Every kind wish and blessing of the season attends you, & dearest Arthur, from

Your very loving friend

I ought to have explained that I thought the A. Nachr. might have contained some addenda for Cal. Obj.:-
