

till it is paid for, will you kindly leave the amount with your servant to pay the messenger when he calls. They will not doubt add the postage (probably 6d.) to the price. They state in their Catalogue that they execute Bookbinding in all varieties & styles. &c. &c. but surely Bull ought not to bind except in Calif. - or rather he ought to refuse Calif. for love of his kindred.

And now I must put on waterproofs &c. &c. &c. and with every good Christian wish for you and yours, remains

"My dearest Arthur"

Your loving friend
