My dearest Arthur,

Nothing can be more friendly than your move in my behalf. I am sorry you cannot do it, for I am sure you w<sup>d</sup> do it better than myself - you have a fluent pen & (what I have not) direct access to the fountain of information. However, I might try it. Where I should fail w<sup>d</sup> be in not seeing the original Astr. Nachr. -

Comptes Rendus - & Vierteljahr - you know the rest of that long name - & these things I sh<sup>d</sup> have got at from the very brief notices in "Nature". - The which doth not satisfy me very well. -

However, I could tell better if I were to see a N<sup>o</sup>. of the Journal as done by Proctor - brief ~~by~~ Dr. ~~W.~~ Harry Landon (which his name may be for all that an outsider might make out of his
