My dearest Arthur,

Many, many thanks for such kind remembrance of me. It so happens that I have the book - from the Author - but I shall not the less value your friendly loving thought of me - & I will try to think of a few on whom your generosity would be well bestowed. -

Parish matters are pressing. I was in the saddle $\frac{1}{4}$ before 8 this morning - & at least of the time since.

A matter has set me thinking, as to which I should greatly value your kind opinion. When the late Mrs. Nepleton Penoyre died, she was good enough to leave me 2 fields
