

sleep in that way - I believe you would hurt your self less by sitting up the whole night now & then than by a regular practice of being so late. -

I wanted to have talked to you about several things - & especially about Birnie's Cat - you wished to tell me something & I wished to learn it, & I w^d have shown you something Birnie wrote to me - He thinks the ex-president is annoyed at him somehow, but he cannot conceive how - as he did all he could to keep clear of anything vexatious - but he finds that in his own memory the Cat must have scratched him somehow - he cannot imagine in what way. - The Ex P. ~~has~~ told him he had misunderstood & misrepresented d'Arrest & Vogel - he (Mr. B.) sent me d'A. (he had with Vogel at hand) for me to compare, & I am bound today in all fairness that B's translation seems to me quite right in every respect - I repeat all this very much - & especially that H. wrote to B. to say he had not time to go into details (of comparison) when really the Cat contained both the German, & the translation perfectly accessible. - Of course this is strictly private.

So poor dear Sacchi is gone! -

Next Thursday Dr. we go to 7 Rodney
