

were somewhere in the Bloomsbury direction - but "beginners must ask the choosers." -

In greatest haste for this part

Y. M. G. J. W.

T. W. Webb

2 Queen's Villas West Chislehurst, 30 June 79

245 (149)

My dearest Arthur

We came to Town on Thursday - & on here on Saturday - & during the one clear day I was so busy I had no chance of finding you out (or rather finding you in) We stay here till Thursday & then return for a few days (I don't know how many - but over Sunday anyhow) to London - but where you might find us is unknown to us - funny enough, you will say, for the old birds ~ but the fact is we thought when we came away on Sat<sup>d</sup> that we were sure to get at Bloor's (11 Queen Square) on Thursday - but he writes since to say he can't take us in, but will try to get us quarters ~ So I absolutely can't tell you where to find us - & I had better come & find you as soon as I can manage it (having to dovetail it in with a lot of engagements) I could not think of leaving Town without seeing my - or rather our - dear old friend - I wash