

carefully over it before going to press. Mr. Frank has been an invaluable friend to him, but even he has missed some corrections. It will be a blessed thing when it is ended. I fear my dear Arthur that we shall not be able to go & see you till quite the last week in April if you can have us then.

It will be a great pleasure to us to spend a week with you & I hope the weather will be fine

& warm then. This is a short letter, but we have a choir dinner to-day (20 in number) & my duties of arranging & carrying will soon begin. I hope you are pretty well. With our kindest love believe me yours affectionately
W. W. Abbott.

My dearest Arthur
How kind of you to write & to express such interest in your old be-scalded friend - who has quite recovered at last & heartily thanks God for it. That's a very interesting
