

instead of me.

I am delighted at the idea of our meeting so soon, but can add no more now - (but that I hope soon to have the Equatorial stand bravely adjusted, & in finding order. I saw I believe Neptune last night.)

I had almost forgot to say that W<sup>2</sup> greatly admired your very sensible letter to the Standard.

Ever your truly affectionate
J. W. Webb.

P.S. he had yesterday a most kind invitation from Mrs. Stackhouse Acton, to stay with her, while the bye can be put under a celebrated Shrewsbury oculist - but we prefer Dr. Evans's recommendation in London. -
