

Hardwick Vicarage 26 Oct. 1870.

(24)

My dear Mrs. Parnard

My husband is writing this for me to let you know that I have this morning heard from Dr. Webb's wife; she tells me that she knows of excellent lodgings at 13 Woburn Place, at 2.2.0 <sup>per</sup> week - and she mentions two others besides - expressing however a strong fear that if we do not close very soon, we shall lose the chance from the over-crowding of London by French refugees - My husband has also been rather disquieted by symptoms of inflammation (though slight, and we hope checked for the present) in <sup>my</sup> ~~the~~ other eye - and we have been urged by Dr. Evans (though he knew nothing of the latter circum-