

to tell me whether in view of that want or
of previous disposal by private contract, it would better to have the following, bound.

Monthly Notices.

Gentleman's Magazine.

Proceedings of Soc. Antiquaries

do — Royal Soc. Literature.

It will cost me a good deal to do it -
the only question with me, however, is,
will it repay me (on my Ex^{co}) in the end?

You will very much oblige me by your kind opinion.

I sh^d like to sell Russell's Globe of the Moon. It is not of much scientific value, but a pretty astronomical ornament.

I know you will be glad to hear poor little Mary is going on exceedingly well. The marriage seems to have brought a great blessing. Her poor wasted cheeks have been rounded up, & she looks years younger, & well, & happy.

Please excuse this piece of paper & believe me always
your very affectionate
